EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING

James Smith of Aston Rowant was elected to the ODG at the EGM held at St Peter's, Great Haseley on Saturday 25th October. We give James a warm welcome.

NEW BRANCH BANK ACCOUNT

After a few frustrating months, I have managed to open our branch bank account with Metro Bank.

Going forward, I intend to operate it purely by means of electronic transfers. Therefore, after each 100 Club draw, I will contact the prize winners and ask for their bank details. I will not keep this information afterwards, so if you are lucky enough to win again, I will ask you for the same information.

South Oxon Branch ODG For contributions to Look To, please email:

secretary@southoxon.odg.org.uk

Details of the new bank account number and sort code will be in the January issue of Look To when ODG and 100 Club subscriptions are due.

Any questions please email me at cathy.hd@btinternet.com

TETSWORTH BELLS UPDATE

Following the clean up of the tower and belfry at Tetsworth, there will be a special Evensong service at 4pm Sunday November 30th. This will be a celebration of the bells, ensuring the community are aware of their presence. The Guild and Branch are keen to support Tetsworth PCC to establish regular service Ringing and recruitment.

Would members please let Andrew know if they are able to come along and ring for the service, we'll meet from 3pm.
